
Piper Morrissey

Piper Morrissey began her acting journey at just seven years old, landing her first role a year later in 2011 with a guest appearance on ABC's Crownies. Her breakout followed soon after in 2013, when she played Pippa, the daughter of Kate Ritchie's character Sally Fletcher, on Channel 7's iconic Home and Away.

That same year, Piper was cast as a series regular in Channel 10's gripping mini-series Secrets & Lies. Her performance was widely praised and earned her a nomination for Best Guest or Supporting Actress in a Television Drama at the AACTA Awards — a rare honour for such a young performer.

Piper also appeared in the feature film Around the Block, starring Christina Ricci, and has featured in music videos including Reece Mastin's Rebel and the Reason (2015). With a natural screen presence and a growing body of work across TV and film, Piper continues to build a versatile and compelling career in the industry.
