

Biography - Kim Ko.

Raised to be the perfect 'Oriental Pearl', Kim's core essence is a modern-day 'Dragon Lady'. Intelligent, witty and charming, Kim is perfect for deceptive and misunderstood characters, particularly those with suppressed psychological or anger management issues. A medical professional by training, she has a calm demeanour and is often seen as the 'brains' in the group, while her inner mean streak serves her well as the 'top bitch', the lawyer, the spy, or the overbearing big sister/ best friend. She is often likened to a young Gong Li and Michelle Yeoh. Multilingual in seven languages, Kim is also musically trained in singing, dancing, and musical instruments.
