

Zanél Rautenbach Bio

Zanél is a South African actor and aerial silks and pole dancer. She's starred in multiple award-winning short films. She trained at Indigo View Advanced Actors Academy. She also has a Bachelor's degree in Psychology.

Her diverse experience gives a unique approach to storytelling and bringing characters to life. "I love figuring out the purpose of a scene, taking the audience to where they need to be, and leaving a piece of myself with them."

Zanél also has a career in Instructional Design and eLearning. She has Authored, voiced narrated and appeared in many educational videos. Zanél truly understands the educational medium and her presence makes training engaging.

- She has acted in many plays, including "Breath", performed at the prestigious Johannesburg Theatre.
- She played Emma in "Souffle" which one 'Best Ensemble' in the OCSSFF 2021.
- She also appeared in and co-wrote "One Man's Way to Continue His Day" which was awarded third place in the 48 hour Film Festival for best use of character.
- Zanél has performed in shows as an aerial silks and hammock dancer.