Overview

I'm a passionate screen actor based in Melbourne, Australia.
I'm outgoing, often socialising with friends and family in spare time. I enjoy keeping physically active and challenging myself to try new activities such as my new hobby in martial arts.
I take pride in my work and value continuous growth in both my craft and character. I chase authenticity over all else and I'm determined to be the best I can be by taking on a variety of roles, workshops and new classes.
