

Rose Mckenna has worked in the Film and Art Industry for the past 30 years, in Fringe Theatre Festivals, Independent as well as Commercial Films and Theatre. In film, she has successfully secured strong acting roles in Telemovies, Short Films, T.V. and Web Series as well as T.V. Commercials. In 2018, she landed a lead role in ‘Wild Butterfly’ a doco-drama which was selected for the 2019 W.A. Cinefest, a Screenwest supported film. Throughout 2019, she had small roles in ‘Koko the Red Dog Story’ and ‘I Met A Girl’. In 2018, she worked on 2 short films, ‘Waves’ and ‘I thought of You’ which she was nominated for the Best Actress in various Independent Film Festivals throughout America. This year, she has played a lead role in a U.S Web series, yet to be released, as well bit parts in the series ‘The Heights’.

Prior to 2016, some of her short films were nominated in the St Kilda Film Festival: ‘Dogs Run Loose Around Here’, ‘Polarised’ and ‘The Swimmer’. ‘The Swimmer’ was also selected in the Top Twenty in the Door Post Competition, which she produced, cast and acted in, alongside her sister, under the Production Company, ‘Belfast Sisters’.

Her studies culminated in attending Lee Strasberg Studio, NW5 Acting School as well as completing an Honours Degree Education in London and gaining her U.K. Equity card. Her training has given her a well-rounded perspective in various acting techniques.

With extensive experience under her belt, Rose hopes that her passion in Film and the Arts Industry, will take her into another 30 years.
