

Timothy Ian McMullin's BIO

During Timothy Ian's time at the Arts Academy he played roles such as The Chaplain Mother Courage and Roy The Season at Sarsaparilla. Since graduating in 2017 he has played Malvolio Twelfth Night, Orlando As You Like It, Ensemble Heathers: The Musical & Costello Holy Cow! which gave Timothy the experience he needed to create his own children's theatre company The Juicy Orange.

Alongside Chelsea Matheson they performed Topsy and Turvy's Twisty Turney Journey at the Edinburgh Fringe before moving back to Australia and creating a new choose your own adventure detective mystery for kids, Junior Detective Collective: The Mystery of the Golden Scoop. It was here that Timothy discovered his love for performing for children and working with them to evolve theatre and communicate with them through live theatre.

The Juicy Orange also created CRAIG which was a children's short film selected for Flickerfest 2021! Timothy was also cast in the 2021 Victorian tour of Bigger, Better Brighter with Perform Education! Which planned to tour throughout Victorian primary schools.

Timothy couldn't be happier to be working with Meerkat Productions and continue educating children through performance and solidifying Timothy's love for children's theatre, allowing him to be silly both with himself and with families across Australia.
