

Based in Perth Western Australia, Imogen is a bright and enthusiastic young actor who loves singing and performing both on stage and screen. She currently attends weekly acting classes at Ali Roberts Studio. She enjoys reading and is able to quickly memorise scripts as required. As an only child she has spent a lot of time travelling with her parents and she enjoys meeting new people and experiencing new things. At home she loves spending time training her small dog Sophie to do tricks and put on performances and also writing songs and scripts to stage performances with any friends or relatives she can conscript. Imogen has a great sense of fun and adventure and is willing to give anything a go.
