
MARQUEE

JAMES DYKE

James is a 2014 graduate from QUT and has appeared in an array of different productions whilst studying; In 2013 James was an ensemble member of My First Time, and played Ferapont in Three Sisters; and Cinna the Poet in Julius Caesar directed by Jennifer Flowers. In 2014 James played Johnny in Splendor in the Grass; Koler in Mnemonic directed by Adam Cook; and Ted in A Chorus of Disapproval directed by Terence Clarke AM. James has also trained in stage combat, improvisation, and stand up comedy.

Most recently James was seen in a guest role in the series 800 Words, for Channel 7.