

A lightbulb moment at almost 21yo introduced Aaron to the world of dance.

Over the next two decades, his passion for performance took him all over the world, dazzling audiences at renowned venues such as the esteemed "Le Lido" in Paris, "Royale Palace" and for Walt Disney Special Events Group Australia. His starring role as the principal replacement in Australia's "Dirty Dancing – The Classic Story Onstage" sparked a new love - acting.

Since graduating from 16th Street Studios in 2017, Aaron continues to train and refine his craft, racking up credits and awards for short films such as "Row," "Beyond Charlie," and "A Piece of Us" as well as theatre pieces like "Nursery Web," "Take A Seat" and "Relate."

Recently he tackled the extraordinarily demanding role of both lead character and live 3 hat chef, Maximilien Mortimer for "Gluttony" which received rave reviews as part of the Melbourne Food and Wine Festival.

With a magnetic flair for storytelling and a hunger to add depth and truth to his storytelling, Aaron continues to evolve, create and play....
