

Tegan has worked extensively in Film & Television since 2003 and is a proud alumni of The National Theatre Drama School graduating in 2010. In 2014 she led her first feature film PLAGUE which earned worldwide distribution & success. In 2016 Tegan won Best Actor for film SMALL HANDS in the Made In Melbourne Film Festival. Tegan has undertaken both comedic & dramatic lead & support roles in Film & Television including, THE AIRPORT CHAPLAIN (TV 2026), LA BREA' S2 (TV 2022), HARD TIMES TO FALL IN LOVE (TV 2021), SUPERWOG S2 (TV 2021), MAYBE TOMORROW (Feature 2019), and LION (Feature 2016). In 2025 Tegan co founded theatre company - 'Burned Dinner Theatre', which achieved a sold out season of Debut show 'Horse Girls' at Theatreworks late 2025, then continued in 2026 with original work 'Soap Opera Tonight', - a monthly live soap opera housed at the Brunswick Ballroom featuring special guests, Wil Anderson, Rove, Dilruk Jayasinha, Dave Thornton, and Myf Warhurst, and working alongside Soap Opera Tonight's core cast: Alexandra Schepisi, Nick Simpson-Deeks, Candice Leask, Annabel Marshall-Roth and Tamzen hayes.