INTRODUCTION

Greetings! I am a Sydney based actor with a strong passion for the creative arts. My journey officially began at 8 years old when I was enrolled at Shopfront Theatre, Carlton. In the short time since I have graduated high school, I have been involved in numerous projects most notably being featured as a recurring character in two seasons on the revival series Fat Pizza: Back in Business which premiered on 7mate in 2019. This led to my first IMDB credit at age 18 with no representation. I currently study at Sydney Acting Studio in Script Analysis, Technique Training and Camera Study. Thank you for viewing my CV.
