Barbara Bingham

Barbara Bingham was born and raised in Hawaii, and her first TV credit was on the original Hawaii 5-0. She moved to LA, immersed herself in acting classes and spent the next 18 years working and refining her craft. Barbara's film credits include lead roles in Friday the 13th Part VIII: Jason Takes Manhattan, Soldier's Fortune, Cop Target and Beyond Darkness. Television includes the mini-series Space, movie-of-the-week Bridge Across Time and appearances on highly popular television shows Knots Landing and The Colbys.

Barbara has called Sydney home since 1996 and is a dual American-Australian citizen.

2019 brought roles in the Deadhouse Films series Deadhouse Dark and in the Steve Jaggi Company romantic comedy Romance on the Menu. In the same year she wrote, executive-produced and starred in her first short film Over the Edge, a Hitchcockian thriller currently being entered into the film festival circuit.

Barbara was introduced to the world of corporate professional development in 2000. Since then, Barbara has co-founded Corporate Actors Australia, servicing a wide array of clients including Macquarie Bank, Optus, Caltex and State Transit NSW. www.corporateactorsaustralia.com.au

Both in Australia and the US, Barbara has enjoyed a very successful career in commercials, with over 200 campaigns to her list of credits.
