

Celine Pozzo an Australian-based - with a French, Italian, and Austrian background- actor and artist with a strong focus on performance, screen work, and creative development. She trains extensively in acting — including Meisner and on-camera work — and also builds experience training in stunts. With experience in acting in about 15 short movies, musicals for must see show including currently in the ensemble for Beautiful, theatre in France in Tailleur pour Dames which played 52 times in Paris, she also was the front person for Greenday tribute band in Sydney as well as several other bands back in France. She also plays the role of Sabrina in Lucky Lachy 2 and the role of Maya Dubois in the feature film Algorithm which will be released mid 2026 on platforms.

She has a strong interest in storytelling and filmmaking, including producing and developing indie film concepts.