

Based in Perth, Western Australia, Chloe has a bright and bubbly personality. She is a hard and disciplined worker. She is always willing to try new things and will give 100% in everything she does. She is a quick learner and takes good direction. Since a very young age she was used to captivate an audience by either staging little plays or dancing to the joy of everyone. She has devoted her time to dancing since she was 3 years old and has discovered drama through school which has now become her new obsession. She has featured in commercials for both Parkerville Children & Youth and Red Rooster. She has studied 'Stage & Screen' and 'Voice and Accent' at the Ali Roberts Studio since 2016. Chloe's interest outside drama remains dancing, mainly ballet, jazz, hip hop and contemporary. She has performed in the 2016 season of the Nutcracker with the West Australian Ballet. She is an avid reader and reads up to 3-4 books a week. She enjoys cooking, swimming, netball and travelling. Her spare time is spent by just being a child and kicking balls with her brother or spending time with her friends. She is fluent in French and proficient in performing with a French accent
