

Zachary Boulton

Zachary Boulton is a proud Brisbane based Actor, Director, Playwright and Teacher. Zachary's most recent and significant credits include Hooker in Feature Film The Brighton Miracle Directed by Max Mannix, Lead role Clyde in Feature Film Brisbane by Stewart Tyrrell (2019), Artist in Residence Writer/Director of Sleep...Over for Fusion Project at James Nash State High (2019), Co-Director of Love Means Nothing in Tennis by White Rabbit Theatre Ensemble (2019), Teacher Artist for La Boite Riot Program (2019), Dweezil and Phil in cartoon Space Chickens in Space (2018), Veles in Xbox game Hand of Fate 2 (2018), Earl in Agnus and Earl - Commonwealth Games (2018), Participant of PlayLab Incubator program (2017), Guest Artist Teacher at Yeronga State High (2016-18), Seasonal QUT Acting Tutor (2016-19), DJ in Hanako and Performer in Sand by Belloo Creative (2016-2019), Zac in one-man show The Fever (2015).