

Nicola Ingram

Nicola Ingram is a proud Palawa and Wiradjuri woman based in nipaluna (Hobart) and naarm (Melbourne). She is a graduating actor with The Victorian College of the Arts (VCA) 2021. Nicola has played roles such as Joni 'Fill Fill Fill Fill Fill Fill Fill' (Dir. John Kachoyan) and Maria 'Twelfth Night' (Dir. Sarah Cathcart). Nicola is passionate about writing poetry and has performed original work as part of 'Fan the Flames' a collaboration of students and colleges from the Wilin centre for Indigenous Art's. She has also appeared as Headmistress 'The Chapel Perilous' (Dir. Alice Darling) and Tree 'Gaban' (Dir. Budi Miller). She currently looking forward to performing in 'promiscuous/ cities' (Dir. Alyson Campbell). Nicola has a deep passion for creating work within environments that celebrate diversity and accessibility, these values are deeply embedded within her practice.