TESTIMONIALS

"One among them stood out as perfect for the role in Absolution. Melody Rom. I played through the scene acting with her and had her improvising on the spot. No matter what I threw at her, she just went for it. I was really impressed with how well she listened and responded to direction. We were able to really mold the scene in the rehearsal and even though she was acting on the kitchen floor, it already worked. She's a natural actor and I'm thrilled to have her come on board." Dean Butler, Director- Aluciner Productions

"Melody's sensitive approach to text allows her to create characters that have detailed subtexts, carefully revealed to their audience through appropriate vocal and physical choices." Duncan Sharp, Director

Melody has been praised for her uncanny ability to learn and retain scripts with ease. She trains both models and Pageant candidates in runway, fashion, glamour and print. Growing up in a musical family gave Melody opportunity to learn and perform from a very young age and she is comfortable on stage and working behind the scenes. Melody has appeared and performed in many charity functions and assists with her parent's Community Livelihood Project in the Philippines and her Mum's other community projects & events both locally and internationally.
