

After an extensive training in Theatre, Jai moved into the world of Film & Television; working in Australia, Europe, Asia and the USA.

His indoctrination into film, playing the lead in 'Watermark', Directors Fortnight - Cannes Film Festival.

Now, having over ten years experience, he has developed an extensive body of work. From commercial films such as 'Dark Island', to US Network Television -series (TNT) - 'Lucky Chance', playing a vigilante police officer.

Over the years, Jai's work has been awarded numerous International and local 'Best Actor' awards.

His latest films; include 'Terminus', 'The Half Dead' & the U.S. comedy 'Benjamine Troubles'.

He has performed alongside John Reese Davies, Jeremy Sisto, Patrick Bauchau and Manu Interatum, just to name a few.