

Stuart Lumsden

BIOGRAPHY

Stuart graduated from the National Institute of Dramatic Art (N.I.D.A) in 1996, performing in The Cherry Orchard, As You Like It, The Merchant of Venice, The Pajama Game and more. Upon leaving, he appeared in Hamlet and Jake and Pete – A Road Story for Cats, and has performed in Live Acts Onstage for Black Swan State Theatre Company. Stuart's diverse stage credits include The Boys, The Actor's Nightmare, Fiddler on the Roof, Macbeth, Lady Windermere's Fan, Così, and Waiting for Godot. As a director, Stuart has helmed productions such as Così, Mr Kolpert, and The Pajama Game. His screen work includes numerous short and feature films, most recently portraying Benny in The Well Dressed Man. In October 2023, Stuart took on the role of Leontes in The Winter's Tale for Empty Space Productions. He is set to appear as Ben in The Dumb Waiter, fulfilling a long-held ambition to perform in a Harold Pinter play.
