SOCRATIS OTTO

Socratis, a NIDA graduate, is perhaps best known to audiences for his groundbreaking role as transwoman Maxine Conway in the global hit WENTWORTH.

He was last seen as Silva Vaccarro in the Aus premiere of Tennessee William's BABY DOLL (Ensemble) and will next be performing in the 9 hour Adelaide Festival reading of The Illiad.

He recently stars in the feature THE FLOOD and the ABC mini-series FALLOUT, which are due for release in 2020.

Other credits include CARLOTTA, DARWIN'S BRAVE NEW WORLD (as Charles Darwin), FALSE WITNESS, HOME AND AWAY, MAGAZINE WARS, I, FRANKENSTEIN, THE MATRIX RELOADED, MY MISTRESS, SAINT JOAN, SALT (STC), STOCKHOLM (with UK's FRANTIC ASSEMBLY), PERIBANEZ, MIDSUMMER NIGHT'S DREAM (Belvoir), WOYCZECK (Malthouse), BIRDLAND (MTC), RABBIT (Griffin) and as Francis Bacon's muse George Dyer in Jim Sharman's Helpmann award winning THREE FURIES for the Sydney Festival.

He directed the innovative web-series RAIN DANCE about female farmers in rural WA, the Sydney fringe festival hit THE HOPE SONG - dealing with real life stories of mental health and music, the short 'slow hands', and is developing projects that continue to showcase his versatility in all aspects of the industry.

Socs has three degrees, is currently head tutor at Sydney Actors Collective and one of Nida's most sought out corporate players. Also a proud ambassador for Listen Up Music ( a mental health charity raising funds in aid of suicide prevention), his love for collaboration has seen him work across all aspects of the industry as he continues to push boundaries, inspire and break ground in his work.
