

Katie is a Chinese-Vietnamese performer and artist hailing from Naarm (Melbourne). At Federation University Arts Academy, Katie had the privilege of performing in their graduating shows, “Seussical the Musical” (Jojo Understudy), and “Heathers: The Musical” (Young Republicanette) in 2019. Katie has also written and performed two original cabarets, “Frolic Fest” and “Heroes”.

As a classically trained violinist, Katie has played in several orchestras for productions such as “The Little Mermaid” and “Chicago”.

In the past two years, Katie has become a board member of charity organisation Be You Inc., joined the staff at CentreStage, and has also featured in Vidya Makan’s Green Room Award nominated video, “I Need You To See Me”.

Outside of performance, Katie has been prioritising their health, and has since put more focus on their visual arts career as an illustrator.
