

Caitlin Garner (she/her) is an irrepressible, vivacious performing artist who grew up by the sea in Warrnambool, South West Victoria. She was recently inducted into the Holiday Actors Hall of Fame for her outstanding years of contribution to community theatre. Caitlin- Caity to her friends- is currently Ballarat based, drawn to the beautiful artistic community she discovered there. During her time at the Federation University Arts Academy, Caitlin was invited to perform at the 2023 Australian Actor Training Conference as well as perform the chainsaw-wielding lead Blasko Tupper in original Australian musical MOTOR-MOUTH LOVES SUCK-FACE. Beyond the stage, Caitlin tinkers in writing and collaborating on theatre works.
