

Laura has been acting for the stage and screen since 2007. She has been nominated for two AACTA awards, for her work in feature film Animal Kingdom and telemovie Underground: The Julian Assange Story. In 2013, Laura won Best Actor at the TROPFEST film festival for We've All Been There and her role in The Kingdom of Doug earned her a Best Actor nomination at St Kilda Film Festival. She has led a series of other successful shorts and independent features, and in between film projects, has guest-starred in Winners and Losers, Miss Fisher's Murder Mysteries & Get Krackin. More recently, Laura appeared in Informer 3838 & Miss Fisher's Modern Murder Mysteries.

In 2017, Laura led Stan Originals' series Wolf Creek S2 and ABC iView comedy series The Housemate. Laura also wrote, produced and starred in short film Happy Memories. Following the release of genre short Time Addicts and dark comedy Hannah & The Friend Zone in 2019, her recent credits include Thomas Rides in an Ambulance in 2021, and Book Club in 2022.