

Laura has been acting for the stage and screen since 2007. She has been nominated for two AACTA awards, for her work in feature film Animal Kingdom and telemovie Underground: The Julian Assange Story. Laura won Best Actor at the TROPFEST film festival for We've All Been There and her role in The Kingdom of Doug earned her a Best Actor nomination at SKFF. Alongside her leading roles, Laura has featured in numerous successful shorts and independent features and guest-starred in Winners and Losers, Miss Fisher's Murder Mysteries, Get Krackin, Informer 3838 and Miss Fisher's Modern Murder Mysteries.

Laura also led Stan Originals' series Wolf Creek S2 and ABC iView comedy The Housemate. She wrote, produced, and starred in her own short film Happy Memories. Following the release of genre short Time Addicts and dark comedy Hannah & The Friend Zone in 2019, her recent credits include SKFF 2022 opening night film Thomas Rides in an Ambulance and Book Club. Most recently, Laura produced and starred in new short film The Body, to be released in 2024.