

Vidya most recently appeared in of Green Days's 'American Idiot' (Shake & Stir), which opened it's national tour at the prestigious Sydney Opera House. With a background as an instrumentalist and football player, she graduated with a Bachelor of Music (Musical Theatre) from the Queensland Conservatorium in 2015. Vidya made her professional debut in 2016 as Little Inez in Hairspray: The Arena Spectacular (Harvest Rain), performing alongside Christine Anu, and since then, has been featured in numerous shows including Merrily We Roll Along (Watch This) , Let It Be (Flourish Productions), Nine (Manila St Productions) and was the Standby Felicia for the critically acclaimed production of Memphis (StageArt). Vidya also plays the lead role of Maria Krish in the feature film The Colour Of Darkness which has seen a nation wide release in Australian EVENT Cinemas and throughout India, as well as featuring in festivals around the world playing in London, New Jersey and Dhaka. As a composer, she is working on her debut full length musical, 'Woman', which received a reading with HomeGrown's Grassroot's initiative last year. Vidya would like to thank her teachers, the team at Ian White Management, her parents and her bud for their ongoing support