

PRISCILLA DOUEIHY

After moving to Australia from Lebanon at the age of 13, Priscilla trained at the Actors College of Theatre & Television in Sydney then moved to London and attended the MET film school in London as well as The Actors Studio, under the mentorship of BAFTA award winning director Chris Bould and Director Tim Kent.

While in London, Priscilla starred as Portia in The Merchant of Venice and Cecilia in Widows at the London Contemporary Theatre. Most recently, Priscilla played Petya Trofimov in The Cherry Orchard at Belvoir St Theatre. Her theatre credits include the lead role in award winning playwright Samah Sabawi's production, 'Them' in Melbourne for which she was nominated for best ensemble cast at the Greenroom Awards in Melbourne; and Moonshine & Tits' production, 44 Sex Acts in One Week by award winning writer David Finnigan.

Her screen credits include TV series Orange is the New Brown, award winning Web Series' Back in the Game, The Out There and Love Bug. She has starred in a leading support role in On The Ropes for SBS, directed by Shannon Murphy for which she was nominated for Best Ensemble Cast by the MEAA. Most recently, Priscilla played the lead character Haylee in the series, Committed, directed by Curtis Lee; Gina in the Stan Original Series, Eden and featured in the Seven Studios Television Series, The Unboxing.

Priscilla made her feature film debut in the AFRS award winning feature film, Surburban Wildlife, Directed by Imogen McCluskey; starred in director, Shannon Murphy's debut feature film, Babyteeth, alongside Eliza Scanlen and Ben Mendelsohn, as well as the blockbuster Godzilla Vs Kong, directed by Adam Wingard. Her other film credits include award nominated short films such as Atomic Love directed by Imogen McClusky, Occupied, directed by Ruby Lennon, Sugar, directed by Tine Jensen, Cleaning Process, directed by Tim Kent as well as the TV movie A Good Family directed by Fadia Abboud.

Priscilla will next be seen in the Seven Network upcoming TV Series' Famtime, a leading role in Daniel Askill's debut feature film Lunacy, alongside Isabel Lucas and Lily Sullivan.

Priscilla is fluent in French, Arabic and Spanish.