

Ashleigh Rainer is a half German/Australian actress residing in Brisbane, AUS. Coming from a theatre background, her first professional role was 'Clara Salope' (lead), in the David Williamson smash-hit comedy play, "Managing Carmen," which featured in the Noosa Long Weekend Arts Festival that year. Her latest credits include playing Jade (lead) in the short film "DUO" (2022), and Sophie (lead) in the latest Beernuts Productions skit "Couples Therapy" (2022) - IMDB. Other roles include featured extra roles in Baz Luhrmann's 'Elvis' and has had minor roles in Television Series 'Young Rock' and 'Darby and Joan'. Ash is also a professional singer (with a dancing background) and fronts the 'Molly Frocks' rock band as their quirky, powerhouse, lead singer and performs in an acoustic duo, singing and plays ukulele.