

Raised in Melbourne, Will always had an affinity for the performative aspects of life. Though many tried to convince him of this Will did not find his spotlight on the stage until his final years of High-school playing Danny in “Grease!” Receiving his BFA degree in 2023 Will has performed professionally as Lead Vocalist with Royal Caribbean International, DVE in “50 Shades of Grey the Musical” and OzBoyz with StageFour Productions. Though he did not find his passion as early as some, Will is delighted to be able to spend the rest of his life doing what makes him genuinely happy.
