

Elenoa's career began at 16yrs old after being discovered at her Performing Arts High School & then later winning the 2006 4th Annual Cabaret Showcase in Sydney the same year. This all lead to her first role playing 'Grace Kelly' a young jazz singer starring beside Rhonda Burchmore in the musical 'Respect' in 2007.

The list of her performing accomplishments continued as she quickly followed this with many performances for top industry shows & fundraisers, Sydney Theatre Company Annual Cabaret, "Light the Night" & 'Hats Off'. Appearing on popular ABC show 'Spicks & Specks' as the musical guest panelist, Elenoa has also performed her successful cabaret show 'Chanteuse' at the 2009 Adelaide Cabaret Festival. She played the lead role of Taylor McKessie in The Musical 'High School Musical' and performed in the Australian regional tour of the musical "Wild World" the Cat Stevens Story and adds to her musical theatre skills base, "FAME" The Musical, 'HAIRSPRAY' The Musical as Judine one of the 'Dynamites' and also played The Judge & Sales Girl on "Legally Blonde" The Musical. She has ventured into the movie arena playing a featured role in 'The Great Gatsby' directed by Baz Luhrmann 2013 as a 'Speak Easy' dancer and at present is enjoying performing with SMA talent group 'The Diamonds'.

Elenoa is always grateful to be given every opportunity to do what she lives for & that is to perform.
