

Ella Wilson is a Sydney-based actor and recent graduate of the Bachelor of Performing Arts (Stage and Screen) at Actors Centre Australia. Originally from Victoria's Mornington Peninsula, she brings over a decade of experience as a live singer, with a strong foundation in classical and contemporary theatre.

Her recent roles include Ophelia (Hamlet), Julia Gibbs (Our Town), Sybil (Private Lives, NIDA), and Thea Elvsted (Hedda Gabler).

Ella is known for her quiet intensity, humour, and a deep emotional honesty that brings nuance to every role. With a natural ear for accents (Australian, American, RP), and a strong sense of ensemble, she is drawn to stories that explore complexity, contradiction, and emotional risk.

She is passionate about work that challenges audiences and values collaboration, precision, and bold storytelling.
