ARTIST INFO – Actor/Singer/Visual Artist

Miguel Castro started his career as a stage actor with one of the oldest theatre companies in Manila, Philippines, Gantimpala Theatre Foundation, in 1989. After doing non-musical plays for almost 15 years, he was offered a managerial service in mainstream show business, which led him to try out singing in 2005. He was invited to audition for an original musical called “SAINT LOUIS LOVES DEM FILIPINOS”, and got the lead role. Since then he put his acting career on hold for he fell in love with singing.

Right after the first major musical he had done, he was invited in the same year to audition for “AAWITAN KITA LIVE”, a famous television show of the icon Armida Siguion Reyna, promoting traditional Filipino classical and contemporary songs, but this time being performed live monthly. He was then asked to stay as a regular singer. The show lasted for 10 years.

Having no proper training, he sought the help of friends in the classical world for classical voice training. He has always felt he was inclined to classical and pop classical genre. He found and stayed as a student with his voice teacher, Pablo Molina from 2007-2015.

Since then he joined other groups, such as “HARANA” (Serenade) of The Philippine Opera Company in 2008, “MAHARLIKA” (Royal) of MASKARA Production in 2010, and eventually he created and founded “THE FILIPINO TENORS” in 2011.

Miguel continues his career carrying the advocacy of Armida Siguion Reyna, to keep the Filipino Music traditions alive and passed on to generations. He is dubbed as “The King of Modern Harana” (King of Modern Serenade).

Miguel fills his free time with his first love, the visual arts. He is a Papercut Artist.
