SHORT BIO

Sydney-bred writer, actor, musician, and athlete, Ben Chapple began by performing his own award-winning plays, novels and screenplays that led to achievements such as being shortlisted for the Sydney Theatre Company's prestigious Patrick White Playwrights' Award in 2016. Graduate from the BA (Acting) course at the Western Australian Academy of Performing Arts (WAAPA) in 2019, Ben has shared his takes on iconic characters like Francis in 'The Golden Age', Paul in 'Birdland', Fr Flynn in 'Doubt', and Holden Caulfield in Reg Cribb's 'Bullies'. After wrapping the short film 'Hy_Brain', Ben spent much of 2019 in Melbourne starring in Screentime/Network Ten's second series of 'Playing For Keeps' in the lead role of Liam Flynn, AFL superstar.
