

Danielle Catanzariti is a L'Oreal Paris AFI Young Award winning actress which she received for her first feature film, Hey Hey It's Esther Blueburger in 2007. She was cast as lead character Esther Blueburger and starred opposite Academy Award nominees Toni Collette and Keisha Castle-Hughes. Following the completion of Hey Hey It's Esther Blueburger, Danielle was cast in the prestigious Sydney Theatre Company's 2008 season play Blackbird directed by Cate Blanchett which toured to Germany and New Zealand. Danielle also starred opposite singer Natalie Imbruglia in the Australian feature film Closed for Winter, as well as completing a guest appearance on Seven Network's All Saints. Danielle's awards include; winner of 2009 Channel 9 Young Achiever for the Arts and a nomination for Best Actress at the Film Critics Circle awards. In 2010 Danielle was named Young South Australian of the Year which lead to a nomination at the national awards in Canberra for Young Australian of the Year. Danielle has presented awards on shows such as the MTV Awards, Film Inc Awards and the Film Critics Circle Awards. Currently, she has performed on stage in Fugitive, Girl Who Cried Wolf and Pinocchio the Musical, for Windmill Theatre Company, A MidSummer Night's Dream for Belvoir St Theatre and Brink Production's Land & Sea. Danielle recently starred in State Theatre Company of South Australia's production of Babyteeth.