

Lumka Coleman, she/her is an Afro-aussie who originates from Johannesburg, South Africa. She currently lives on unceded Wangal/Gadigal land and is a proud alumna of Atlantic Acting School Conservatory (2019).

During her time at Atlantic her credits have included: Sabina/Reporter/Ensemble in The Skin of our Teeth by Thornton Wilder directed by Raelle Myrick-Hodges, Honey in Whose Afraid of Virginia Woolf by Edward Albee directed by Romain Mereau and Meredith, Freefalling by Aurine Squire directed by James Katz.

Most recently her work has included; 'Goodbye Smile', spoken word voice over in collaboration with NYC based musician Antoine Amay (2020), 'Antique Heroes' a short film written and directed by Caroline McQuade (2021) & Squarespace TVC by Finch/Somesuch directed by Sam Hibbard (2021).

In 2021 Lumka was selected to be one of the performers in Equity Foundations 2021 Screen Diversity Showcase in 'Bast' by Rafief Ismail.

She has been a proud member of MEAA since 2014.