Name: Aaron Robinson

DOB 16/3/81

Race: Mixed – Maltese/ Irish

COB: Australia

Training:

I 1st started acting in 1993 as a child and attended T.A.P.S (The Australian playhouse studio) Now know as Tafta. There I studied Movement, voice, theatre and camera classes earning the lead roles at my end of year performances at the Riverside Theatre.

I studied Acting further in 1997 and 1998 At John Paul 2 High School in my drama class again being the lead in all performances and being sent to castings at Mullinars straight from school.

After I left school I was cast in one TVC for Nike but soon after gave acting a break and pursued a fruitful carrier in music for the next part of my life under the artist name Losty.

Always missing acting I got back into acting again in 2008 doing a variety of extras work and getting a feature role in a Budweiser TVC.

In 2015 I did a term at the Sydney Drama school and then in 2018 completed Screenwise short courses of Beginners, Intermediate and Advanced + Tafta Casting workshops with Faith Martin, David Newman and Anousha Zarkesh.

In 2019 I attended Leigh PickFords casting workshop at Tafat twice and have booked Peter Andrikidis work shop at Tafta for February 2020. I plan to do another short course and attended as many casting workshops as possible this year.
