WHO HE EMBODIES

With a profound sense of empathy Chris often portrays a fascinating mix of diverse characters. From the affable yet enigmatic Doctor Rob Carsen in Neighbours, the resolute yet vulnerable Sergeant Hill in My Friend My Enemy, to his eager and opportunistic journalist in Undertow, Chris' characters resonate with audiences. His theatrical work in plays such as Speaking in Tongues by Andrew Bovell and the acclaimed title role in Springsteen, garnered glowing reviews. Nurtured by the wisdom of mentors like Howard Fine, Jean-Louis Rodrigues, and Kim Farrant Chris effortlessly traverses both film and stage.

"Chris is a dynamic actor, ready to take on the most challenging of directions. He embraces the unknown with open arms, and is not afraid to stand at the edge of danger. I can't wait to work with him again!" - Jean-Louis Rodrigue (Movement Specialist: J. Edgar)
