

Award winning British/ Australian Actor Christian is an energetic, passionate and hardworking individual. Originally of Danish heritage, he has lived in numerous European countries before making Sydney his home. This has led to a unique education and life experience, allowing him to develop a broad knowledge of various cultures and accents. International experience has been gained on Films, TV, Commercial projects, Web Series and Theatre. He has received 4 International Best Actor awards, is a recipient of the Ian Potter Foundation Grant and has trained at RADA, The William Esper Studio, as well as various other studios in Australia.

Christian was part of the team that created the 52 part Web series, Flat Whites which was later made into a 6 part TV series. He then wrote his own series, Subclass 417 which was also televised. Apart from his vast theatre credits, he is more notably known for his recurring character on Neighbours.