

Born in the South of France in 1965, Actor Jean-Pierre Yerma (JP) migrated to Australia with his family in 1971. JP was encouraged into Music & the Arts from a very young age by his father Claude, a professional Violinist. Jean-Pierre is passionate about delivering truthful performances encompassing emotional Preparation and realism with Deep Emotional Connection. JP trained at NIDA in screen acting and pursued further education in the Meisner Technique at The Actors Pulse with Billy Millionis. With an outgoing personality and a strong desire for excellence, JP's natural entrepreneurial flair consistently provides opportunities to incorporate his splash of colour and pizzazz into every role that he undertakes.

Fluently bilingual in both French & English, JP's versatility and commitment to success has seen him land roles in feature films, working alongside world-renowned Directors such as George Miller in (Happy Feet), and Colin Budds in (Romance in the Vineyard).

JP's professionalism in Performances earned him the prestigious selection to perform in Australia's first Diversity Showcase. Recently acclaimed for his role as "Franco Balzerini" in Romance in the Vineyard (opposite Susie Abromeit, Tim Ross, Cameron Robbie & Marita Wilcox).
