

Born in Melbourne, Australia to Photographer/Gallerist parents, Charles grew up in an artistic family. Of Franco/Australian Heritage, he is a dual citizen of France and Australia, having traveled extensively with his parents for work from a young age.

Charles discovered a love of the performing arts at a young age with his diverse upbringing, immersed amongst different cultures nurturing his love for story telling before attending drama school to further his studies. Having been trained across a multiple of disciplines he is both a classically and contemporary trained actor, writer, and comedian.

His latest projects include Australian Comedy Series WTFitness (2022) which he created, and E-Sports Military Drama Interface (2023)

Charles is known for such roles as Chad in Legacies (2020-21), Lewis Knox in Ms Fisher's Modern Murder Mysteries (2019), Jackson in Occupation (2018), and Danny Winter in Wentworth (2018)
