

Victoria Mäntynen's Biography

With a B. Musical Theatre Victoria has been privileged to be involved in; Melbourne Shakespeare Company's 'A Midsummer Night's Dream' and 'Tempest', Multiple characters in 'The Living Museum of Erotic Women' (Directed by Willow J Conway), 'Glengarry Glen Ross' (Directed by Rob Forza); Princess Aurora in 'Sleeping Beauty, the musical' (produced by Make Believe Theatre); Muriel Eubanks in 'Dirty Rotten Scoundrels' (Directed by Dale Pengelly); and Florence Vassey in 'Chess' (Directed by John Wregg). She has also performed in 'Cabaret' (Directed by Dale Pengelly); 'Anything Goes' (Directed by Thern Reynolds); and 'Sweet Charity' (Directed by Chloe Dallimore).

Prior, she has appeared in numerous musicals such as 'Joseph And His Amazing Technicolour Dreamcoat', 'Guys And Dolls', 'Godspell' and featured in 'Beauty And The Beast' as Belle.

Victoria has also been very fortunate whilst being a member of the Australian Girls Choir performing in 'The Boy From Oz' (starring Hugh Jackman), QANTAS commercials, MCG Grand Finals, FINA World Championship, Bledisloe Cup, and G'day U.S.A just to name a few.