

Brodie Cornish (she/they) is an actor and writer based between Gadigal Country and Meanjin. Coming up, Brodie is reprising her role in Falling in Slow Motion mini series after her performance as Lisa in the proof of concept film. Prior, they played titular role in horror cult classic Sophies Turn (Crypt TV supported by Blumhouse). Previous credits include Laura in The Bracelet winning several Best Actress awards and qualifying for the Academy Awards during its festival run. Brodie also played the lead role of Verna in comedy short The Greens, premiering at Gold Coast Film Festival before being awarded top 3 for the best short film prize and taking home the People's Choice Award at St Kilda Film Festival.

Brodie is an alumnus of Griffith Film School, graduating top of her class with a Bachelor of Creative Industries majoring in Screen Curation and Distribution.

Feedback from Lisa Robertson (The Handmaid's Tale, Oceans Thirteen):

"Very clear, dynamic and easy and the turn within that 2nd beat into the emotional transition was great. Brodie – I REALLY liked this tape! I was right with your eyes and I felt your eyes "lead the frame" which is so important."
