Bio:

Thomas Walkland has an unrivalled passion for the craft and has devoted his adult life to studying acting and performing. After completing a rigorous three-year course at The Actors' Hub in 2024, Thomas has showcased his talent in 17 stage performances and 4 films. Inspired by the works of Timothee Chalamet, Thomas strives to find the honesty behind the eyes of every character he portrays to truthfully expose both their triumphs and flaws. Thomas is committed to expanding his knowledge and skills so he can at all times honour the writer's vision. Beyond acting, Thomas Walkland is passionately dedicated to the ongoing development of meaningful works in Western Australia and is committed to building a sustainable artistic career that contributes to the cultural life of WA and beyond.
