

Maggie Chretien is a working Actress & Voice Over Artist based in Melbourne. Maggie's credits include voicing the lead character "G" in Gwen Stefani's children's series "Kuu Kuu Harajuku" which is being played internationally by networks including Disney & Nickelodeon. Maggie played a supporting role in the cult smash "SheBorg Massacre" directed by Daniel Armstrong which not only can be purchased at any JB Hi Fi Store but was also selected in a film festival in Sitges Spain in 2017. Maggie was also a founding member & Principal Actress of Mockingbird Theatre Company. She has also won awards for her time spent on the stage in productions such as "The Laramie Project" at Chapel off Chapel & "Compleat Female Stage Beauty" which were both directed by industry great Chris Baldock.

Maggie has formal training which includes a Bachelor of Performing Arts from The University of Ballarat along with completing numerous short courses at establishments such as TAFTA, Brave Studios & many more. Maggie loves the Theatre but also has extensive experience in film, TV & Voice Over.

Maggie has done Voice Over work for TVC's, cartoons and training videos in the corporate sector. She also presents much of the online content for Vax Vacuum's Australia as well as voicing numerous TVC's for them.

Maggie is a dedicated artist who loves a challenge & is always excited for new opportunities.