Growing up in Wangaratta, Northeast Victoria, Fergus has always gravitated towards the arts, developing a taste for acting both on stage and screen. He has involved himself with community and school musicals whilst studying VCE Theatre Studies and VCE Drama at Galen Catholic College. Fergus has gone onto perform at a state level with the Victorian Curriculum Assessment Authority's Season of Excellence, both for his Theatre Studies monologue, 'A Ballad Singer' in 2022, as well as his self devised Drama Solo, 'The Emcee', the latter of which Fergus performed at Top Acts in 2023. He is now in his third year of Music Theatre and Acting at Federation University's Arts Academy in Ballarat. Here Fergus has developed his skills throughout various classes and performances, including an in class showing of Micheal Gow's Away with Direction by Danielle Carter, as well as principle roles in The Beau Defeated, Directed by Kellie Tori, and Little Women: The Broadway Musical, directed by Melanie Beddie, with Geoff Castles' musical direction. Additionally, Fergus has joined Ballarat Vocal Studios where he has, with the guidance of Jason Wasley, developed his legit singing voice and a taste for a more operatic style.
