

Nathan Roach Bio

Nathan Roach began his acting and film fascination in high school where he participated in drama classes from year 7 until year 12 at Pittwater High School.

In his time there he starred in Midsummer Night's Dream as the titular Bottom as well as in the PMS productions of The Wedding Singer Musical as well as The Popstars Musical as 'The Host'. The culmination of this led him to be ranked 1st in his drama course.

Since then, he has gone on to act in 'Danny & the Bot' a short film by Sean McFerran (Little Star, Stop, Our Pain) as Thug 2. Soon after, he starred in Up and Go's 2020 advertising campaign 'Up and Go No Added Sugar' as Dan.

He is currently studying at the highly regarded University of New South Wales doing a Bachelor of Arts majoring in Film Studies and Minor in Theatre & Performance. In this, he is increasing his understanding of how to effectively interpret, write and perform in all areas of film and theatre. Additionally, he has attended the Actor Ready Workshop run by Suzie Steen, the Embodying Character Workshop by the Improvising Change Group as well as the NIDA Audition Preparation Short Course.

Away from film and theatre, he has gained effective conversational, directorial and improvisational experience through his work as a rugby league referee, a bartender and most notably as the 2017-2018 school captain.

He is constantly creating, directing and acting in his own videos as he looks to gain more understanding of all aspects in his field. He is looking forward to furthering his experience and putting his skills into action in any upcoming projects which may come his way.
