
MARQUEE

JACK ELLIS

Jack is a 2014 graduate from NIDA. Since graduating Jack has starred in two community television series, By the Sea and Hotel De Barton, performed the lead role in the independent feature film, Bianca and filmed the recurring role of Stan O'Rourke in the Fifth season of Foxtel drama A Place To Call Home, the guest role of Oliver on Home and Away for the Seven Network and appeared in the short films Stranger, and The Dome.

In 2016 saw Jack return to the stage, making his New York debut starring in the US premiere of the production Wolf in The River, in the lead role of the Wolf, written and directed by Adam Rapp, which opened at the Flea Theatre. Jack was also invited back to NIDA to performed in the their production Season at Sarsaparilla. Directed by Kristine Landon-Smith.

Jack will next be seen in the ABC International TV Series, Reef Break, alongside Poppy Montgomery.