
ELKE KAHLER

ACTOR / PRESENTER

ABOUT ELKE

BASED IN SYDNEY / LA

Elke Kahler is an Australian actor and presenter from Noosa, Queensland. Initially in demand as a fashion and commercial model, she transitioned on-camera to hosting and screen roles, where her personality and comic instincts shine. She has trained in Sydney with Les Chantery and in Los Angeles with the likes of Lisa Robertson, Matthew Barry, and Amy Chaffee.

Raised in a highly creative, musical household, Elke plays guitar, saxophone, and piano; her mother is an author, which sparked Elke's interest in writing and developing/adapting book series for the screen. Business-minded and media-literate, she has fronted national work spanning TV, outdoor, and social—recognisable for her on-screen ease and megawatt smile. Brand highlights include Cocobella, Commonwealth Bank Australia Private, Hyper, and Qantas. With a growing slate across comedy and lifestyle presenting, Elke brings polish, warmth, and audience-friendly charisma to every set.
