Summary:

My name is Carlotta and I'm a curious and ambitious artist with an Italian background. I'm always looking for new opportunities and I'm very determined to achieve my goals. I am a fully trained Screen Actress, Singer and Voice-Over artist, constantly on the lookout for new ways to improve myself as a person and as an artist. No matter how big or small the project is, I always give a 110% when it comes to performing arts; it is my greatest passion and I never shy away from a challenge. I gave up everything I've ever built in order to follow the real passion of mine: screen acting. I left my family, my country, my whole safe future behind so that I could pursue my dream and stop focusing on realizing somebody else's dreams instead. Everything around me looks uncertain, but when I get the chance to go to bed exhausted for spending a day on set, I know that it is all worth it.
