Notes

Ana Corbett is an experienced arts professional and a rising star in the acting world, based in Melbourne, Australia. Her recent screen work includes the Australian feature film Who Needs Love Songs (2025) and voicing Tita in the US animated series The Bucket List Family (2025). She was also seen as high-powered defence lawyer Ava Shaw in Shortland Street (2024) and earned praise for her compelling presence in the Australian TV series Totally, Completely Fine (2023). Ana's stage work includes Melbourne Theatre Company's Cybec Electric: Ngātai (2025), and her physical strength and stage combat skills were showcased in her lead role in Auckland Theatre Company's O le Pepelo, le Gaoi, ma le Pala'ai (2024).

Ana is also the producer and a performer in the award-winning theatre work UPU, which has toured internationally to critical acclaim, including a sold-out Australian debut at the Sydney Opera House in 2025. UPU will tour Canada and Australia in 2026.

Alongside her acting, Ana is recognised as one of Aotearoa's leading female voice-over artists and is the brand voice for major companies including Fisher & Paykel, New World, Kiwibank, Fonterra Australasia, and Comvita. Ana is a proud graduate of Toi Whakaari: New Zealand Drama School. Before training as an actor, she was a top-ranked tennis player in New Zealand.
