

BIOGRAPHY

Peta Tiffany is a Greek-Australian actress who has been in a wide variety of productions from stage to screen throughout her career. In 2008 Peta began her career in amateur Musical Theatre productions in ensembles before finding her calling in bigger roles. Peta's first lead role was in 2013 where she played one of the four lover's, "Mia", in Normanhurst Musical Society's production of A Midsummer Night's Dream: The Rock Musical. In 2016 she was invited to join the cast of Hornsby Musical Society's production of The Wedding Singer as part of the key ensemble. As rehearsals went on, due to Peta's dedication, energy and memory, she was consistently given more roles until she had a total of five roles, of which four were key speaking roles.

2014 saw the start of Peta's training in screen acting. She trained with NIDA in various screen acting courses that also introduced her to how a set operates behind the camera as well as in front of the camera. This sparked an interest to learn more about the goings-on behind the camera to improve her work in front of the camera.

Peta has been involved in a number of screen productions. She played the lead role in 2016 Dolby Sound Challenge top 3 finalist short film, Magic Mic and she had the lead role of "Crystal" in short film Once Upon a Time In Australia (2023)

A Midsummer Night's Dream The Rock Musical

Review

(Text trimmed and pictures replaced)

The opening number of the show, 'Come With Me', where the four lovers bravely compete vocally against each other in a mediocre song, with little joy, was not a promising start, and no-one seemed confident. Thankfully all four personable young lovers get better moments later in the show, which they grab - usually in solos or duets, some of them rock numbers, some of them quieter moments. As Helena, Nikki Malvar comes into her own in a torchy ballad, Peta Tiffany (Mia) shines vocally in the unaccompanied opening to the Act 1 finale, while Sam Henry (Alexander) and Michael McPhee (Dimitri) eventually establish some credible rock style and delivery (both characters are rock musicians) in duets with Helena and Mia.

Neil Litchfield.